

Polk County

Jack Atkins Road

[#11032]

Property Information Sheet

Location: Jack Atkins Road property is located in Polk County in northwest Georgia, on the western State boundary line between Georgia and Alabama. Polk County is approximately 50 miles northwest of Atlanta. Jack Atkins Road property is approximately 3 miles from Aragon and approximately 3 miles from Hwy 101.

Size: Jack Atkins Road contains approximately 40 acres.

Area and Parcel Description: Polk County has three incorporated cities, Cedartown, Rockmart and Aragon. Cedartown is now a Main Street City. Rockmart is situated in a triangle formed by Atlanta, Birmingham and Chattanooga. Aragon is referred to as an industrial utopia because of employment and recreation offered by one of the original industrial enterprises of the County, the Aragon Mills, now known as Diamond Mills. Polk County promotes small and large businesses for economic growth
The property offers frontage on Jack Atkins Road with rolling hills. Currently zoned agricultural it is identified as Parcel No. 047 on Map 170. Electricity, water and telephone service are available to Jack Atkins Road.

Timber Characteristics: Pine plantation is the majority of this property with a small portion in streamside management zone.

Disclaimer: